

Mrs Swansborough's Spellings

Test: Friday 12th May 2018

For spellings this week please practise possessive apostrophes.

When something belongs to someone, an apostrophe goes after their name, before the s. Eg.

This is Cian's coat.

If the person isn't named, the apostrophe goes after the noun. Eg.

The girl's thumb was sore.

That dog's bone is enormous!

If something belongs to a group of people, the apostrophe goes after the plural. Eg.

Saplings' classroom was very tidy.

The teachers' staffroom was very messy!

Mrs Swansborough's Spellings

Test: Friday 12th May 2018

For spellings this week please practise possessive apostrophes.

When something belongs to someone, an apostrophe goes after their name, before the s. Eg.

This is Cian's coat.

If the person isn't named, the apostrophe goes after the noun. Eg.

The girl's thumb was sore.

That dog's bone is enormous!

If something belongs to a group of people, the apostrophe goes after the plural. Eg.

Saplings' classroom was very tidy.

The teachers' staffroom was very messy!

Mrs Swansborough's Spellings

Test: Friday 12th May 2018

For spellings this week please practise possessive apostrophes.

When something belongs to someone, an apostrophe goes after their name, before the s. Eg.

This is Cian's coat.

If the person isn't named, the apostrophe goes after the noun. Eg.

The girl's thumb was sore.

That dog's bone is enormous!

If something belongs to a group of people, the apostrophe goes after the plural. Eg.

Saplings' classroom was very tidy.

The teachers' staffroom was very messy!